The crowds are follicking on the beach. Two kids have enough money to buy only one balloon. They each want it and have a fight about it. Julius intervenes and cuts the balloon in half giving each a half.

A very wealthy girl drives up in her car. Her chauffer turns it into a bath-house. She goes in and emerges in a bathing suit. Julius is smitten and tries to make an acquaintance with her but she spurns him. So he sits down on a log crest-fallen.

In the meantime, the girl is at the edge of the beach. She runs into the water and back on the beach when a wave comes. This happens several times. She finally gets caught by a tremendous wave and is dragged out to sea. Julius hears her cries of distress and dives in after her. He rescues her and makes a balloon out of his tail which carries them back to safety. He revives her and she kisses him.
